On a personal note

Originally from: Lancashire

A little about you: Have lived in Meriden since 1986 - over 30 years. Love spending time with my grandchildren. Worked in the public and third sector for most of my career and retrained as a Mediator when I took early retirement from the NHS. I chaired a Housing Association for 12 years and a number of charities I was instrumental in setting up.

Skills: knowledge of the public and 3rd sector; mediation; Fellow of the Institute of Leadership Management; MA Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations.

Favourite things

Book: The Master and Margarita. Mikhail Bulgakov

Meal: Poached salmon

Travel Destination: Europe

Film: ET

Music: Jazz especially Stanley Clarke and Jan Garbarek

Which three people would you invite to a dinner party: Margaret Mead, Mary Seacole, Victoria Wood

Other interesting/unknown facts about yourself: I can't ride a bike; I once had a season ticket for Preston North End.

As a Councillor

What made you stand to be a Councillor?

Wanted to use my skills to make my community a better place to live.

Which parts of/services in Meriden are you most passionate about?

Reducing the speed of traffic through the parish and continue making Meriden a place people of all ages want to live in.

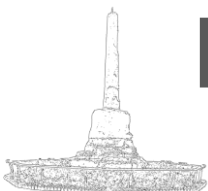

What are your aims over this term in office?

To complete a Neighbourhood Plan and for us to become a Parish Council that holds The Quality Award - the accreditation for parish councils.
